Fans can name their burrito to help Chipotle donate more food to healthcare heroes on the frontlines

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., April 20, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Chipotle Mexican Grill (NYSE: CMG) today announced it is launching a special buy one, give one program to support healthcare heroes across the U.S. From April 21 through April 26, Chipotle will donate a burrito to medical professionals every time a Chipotle digital customer names their burrito order "4HEROES" on the Chipotle app or Chipotle.com. Healthcare workers will be able to sign up for a chance to receive their free burritos starting on Nurses Day, May 6.

"We've seen firsthand how real food can go a long way in lifting the spirits of our country's incredibly resilient healthcare community," said Chris Brandt, Chief Marketing Officer. "We're excited to give fans another opportunity to support our heroes by simply naming their burrito."

Over the past month, Chipotle has demonstrated its commitment to supporting brave healthcare workers across the country. The brand's Delivery Kitchens, which are comprised of dedicated ingredient stations operated by special teams, will continue to prepare digital orders with care. Chipotle is taking additional precautions to help ensure customer safety during this time including: a tamper evident packaging seal for delivery orders, in-app delivery tracker providing step-by-step real-time updates as food travels from the restaurant to its destination and a place for special instructions, so guests can request a contactless delivery when ordering digitally.

The "4HEROES" burritos program applies for purchases of regular-priced burritos only via order.chipotle.com or the Chipotle mobile app, from U.S. Chipotle restaurants, from 4/21/2020 to 4/26/2020. Maximum number of burritos to be donated is 100,000; actual number of donated burritos will depend on redemption rate by qualifying health care providers during the promotional period. Additional terms may apply; void where prohibited.

Free delivery offer valid only for orders placed and fulfilled on 4/1/20-4/30/20 only, within Chipotle's delivery areas within the U.S. from participating U.S. Chipotle locations, during normal operating hours for such locations.
